We are extremely excited to welcome new, amazing teachers to our Forté Family!

Karli - Voice/Piano

Karli, originally from Tallmadge, Ohio, is majoring in Music Education with a specialization in Choral Education at Bowling Green State University (BGSU). In her early musical years, Karli studied with Julie Bozic and Jaron M. Legrair. Upon arriving at BGSU, Karli had the opportunity to study with Sujin Lee before moving on to work with Lance Ashmore. Though her primary instrument is voice, Karli has been taking piano lessons since she was six and has been playing the ukulele since 2019.

Karli is active in multiple musical ensembles at BGSU and has found a passion for treble ensembles with BGSU's Volaré chorus. She is also the publicity coordinator of BGSU's Collegiate Chorale and is the Assistant Music Director of Tonal Eclipse, a student-led pop a cappella group. She is a Choral Scholar at First Presbyterian Church of Bowling Green and spends her summer teaching preschool at Color Our Rainbow Academy. Karli has appeared in 26 stage productions; 16 musicals, 11 plays, and 1 opera. She is also active in BGSU's Honors College and is a member of the 2021 Presidential Scholars cohort.

As a teacher, Karli is passionate about creating inclusive spaces for all students, no matter their background. She is especially passionate about making music accessible for students with special needs and believes everyone has a right to music in their lives.

Wesley - Piano

Wesley found a passion for music early in life and began taking Piano lessons at the age of 7. With an ever-growing interest in music, he participated in High-School performances accompanying the choir, performing for musicals, as well as school events such as graduations and ceremonies.

Throughout his life, he found himself absorbed by many different genres and styles of music and has always taken an interest in exploring varieties of music such as Jazz, Classical, Pop, Classic Rock, and Video Game music.

Currently, Wesley is studying at the Bowling Green State University pursuing a Bachelor of Musical Arts degree with a minor in Jazz studies, and receiving Piano instruction in the studio of Dr. Yevgeny Yontov. Wesley participates in the Jazz ensemble as a pianist while also working alongside vocalists as a piano accompanist.

He aims to develop skills as a music performer and educator, with the goal of helping others to develop a passion and love for music in a fun and welcoming environment.
