We are extremely excited to welcome new amazing teachers to our Forté Family!

Colton - Piano, Voice

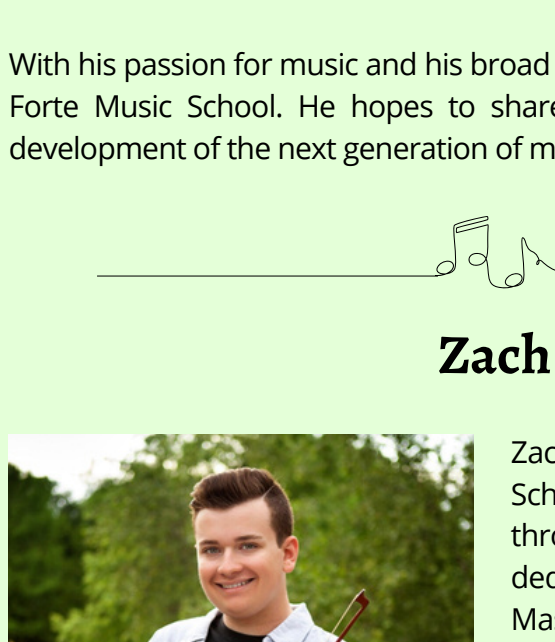

Originally from Tiffin, Ohio, Colton is an alumni of Mohawk High School, where he discovered his passion for music. Colton student-directed and led both the band and choir on various occasions. During his time there, he gained experience accompanying both choirs and solo voices. He held the unique position of being the sole jazz pianist in his high school and showcased his jazz piano skills in numerous concerts over a period of 5 years. Additionally, Colton learned to play saxophone, flute, trombone, and bass clarinet through his involvement in various bands and pit bands.

Colton's piano studies span approximately 13 years, with a strong focus on classical technique and repertoire. As a pianist and composer, he emphasizes the importance of understanding the music theory and style across different eras of classical music. Currently, Colton is a student at Bowling Green State University, pursuing a double major in Music Composition and Choral Music Education. He studies under Dr. Laura Melton for piano and Dr. Christopher Dietz for composition. Also, he actively participates in the university's A Cappella Choir and Men's Chorus.

In addition to his classical pursuits, Colton has a passion for musical theater, which has been a consistent part of his musical journey since he began studying piano. He has contributed to 16 different musicals throughout his life and remains dedicated to furthering his involvement. Beyond performing, Colton has explored the production side of musical theater, engaging in costume design and light production for several shows. His connections extend to his high school theater program, Heidelberg University's community theater, and Tiffin's local theater venue, The Ritz.

Mustapha - Drums

Mustapha was born and raised in Morocco, North Africa. Since childhood, he had a keen interest in music, and at the age of 18, he began playing drums.

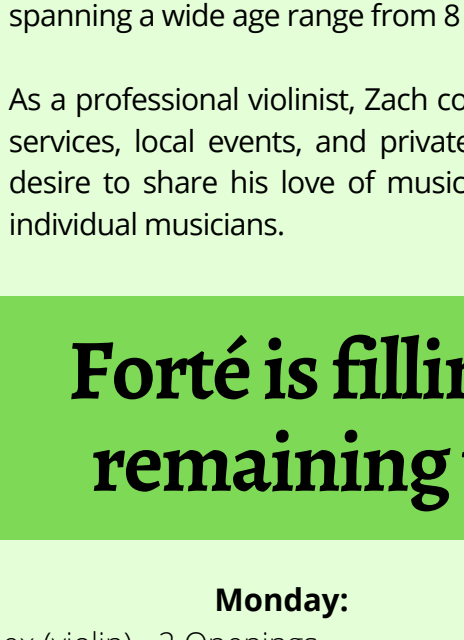

He received formal education in drums and solfège from public music institutes in Kenitra and Casablanca. Mustapha loves the rhythm and the tactile experience of using his hands and feet to play the drums. Playing drums is not only one of his passions, but it also serves as a form of relaxation, exercise, and refreshment.

In his cultural background, there is a traditional drum known as the Amazigh instrument. Mustapha used to play this drum during gatherings in his town, and it holds a special meaning for him as it connects him with people and brings him joy.

Beyond his musical pursuits, Mustapha has a diverse set of interests. He enjoys reading, traveling, camping, biking, watching movies and documentaries, and engaging in sports such as Taekwondo and soccer.

With his passion for music and his broad range of interests, Mustapha is excited to join Forte Music School. He hopes to share his love for music by contributing to the development of the next generation of musicians.

Zach - Violin

Zach's musical journey began at Bedford High School, where he played in the school orchestra throughout junior high and high school. His dedication to music led him to serve as Concert Master for two years. Simultaneously, he demonstrated a passion for performing arts by actively participating in plays and musicals within the school theater department throughout his high school career.

After graduating from Bedford High School, Zach pursued higher education at the University of Toledo. There, he is majoring in Communication Studies and obtaining a minor in Instrumental Music. His academic pursuits included college coursework in music theory and applied music. Zach received instruction in both piano and violin from university faculty members. Currently, he is a proud member of the University of Toledo Symphony Orchestra.

Beyond his academic endeavors, Zach shares his musical talents with the community through active involvement in volunteer organizations. For the past six years, he has been a dedicated volunteer for Hospice of Northwest Ohio, where he plays the violin for patients and families. Additionally, Zach contributes his violin skills to Sunshine Incorporated of Northwest Ohio and provides private violin lessons to students spanning a wide age range from 8 to 80.

As a professional violinist, Zach continues to grow by performing at weddings, church services, local events, and private parties. His enthusiasm for music extends to his desire to share his love of music with new students, encouraging them to grow as individual musicians.
