Tips to Stay Motivated this Summer

Finding motivation to practice can be hard in the summer, but keeping good habits will ensure you don't lose any progress made during the year!

1. Set Goals: Create a list of small, achievable goals that you can accomplish even in short practice sessions. Aim to review one scale everyday, or focus on a specific section of your music.
2. Track Your Progress: Seeing your accomplishments and improvements day-to-day can be highly motivating and encourage you to practice regularly.
3. Experiment with New Songs: Summer is a great time to explore new genres and expand your musical horizons. Choose pieces from different genres that interest you, or start learning your favorite songs for fun.
4. Practice Outside: Enjoy the sun and take your practice session outside! Whether it's your backyard or a nearby park, playing outside can make practicing more enjoyable and relaxing.
5. Set Rewards: Save a fun activity for when you're done practicing, or reward yourself with a small treat!
6. Take breaks and have fun: Lastly, remember that it's essential for students to take breaks and have fun during the summer. Enjoy other activities, pursue hobbies, and relax. Balancing music practice with leisure time will help prevent burnout and maintain a positive attitude towards practicing.
